English Language Proficiency

Applicants whose native language is not English must demonstrate proficiency in English to be considered for enrolment. Here are a few ways it can be demonstrated:

- A minimum score of 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) Academic Test; or
- A minimum score of 83 with a writing score of 20 on the Internet-based Test (IBT) of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL); or
- Completed all secondary or post-secondary education in English speaking countries such as the United Kingdom, West Indies and other countries as specified by the Senate Policy; or

- Completed three years of full-time secondary or post-secondary study in a school where the language of instruction is English (e.g., in a British, Canadian, American or Australian Curriculum or an international diploma like the International Baccalaureate) and can demonstrate English proficiency. In some cases, an English proficiency test may still be required; or
- Successful completion of the University of Windsor's English Language Improvement Program (ELIP) (level III) with a minimum final grade of 75%.
